The Catholic Communicator

A newsletter for the supporters and listeners of Catholic Radio in South Carolina

Thank You

I would like to thank everyone for their contributions during this year's Radiothon broadcast. Because of donors, sponsors, volunteers, and everyone's prayers, Catholic Radio continues to be able to broadcast the Truths of the Catholic Faith to listeners in the Diocese of Charleston and beyond. With your continued support, this lay apostolate will grow and reach more souls for Christ each year. I urge you to continue praying for us and contributing what you can to this evangelization effort.

I would also like to thank the sponsors of our recent Business Breakfast in Charleston featuring Fr. Shenan Boquet, president of Human Life International. Charleston Telecom, Charleston Payroll, Concorde Marketing Specialties, Franks Dirks with Millennium Private Wealth, Matt O'Neill Real Estate's Ben Laaper, Palmetto Commercial Properties, LLC, The South Carolina Christian Chamber of Commerce and Richard White with Cajetan & Joseph Consulting helped make the breakfast a great success.

Again, thank you for supporting Catholic Radio this year. May God bless you and yours.

Yours in Christ,
Gary Towery

And Now for the Bad News...

Charleston, SC – Hurricane Matthew did impact the WLTQ 730 AM transmission site. Despite efforts made by the technical staff, there was damage to equipment maintained at the site. Catholic Radio in SC has been forced to request Special Temporary Authority (STA) from the FCC to broadcast on a backup transmitter at a significantly lower power level until the primary transmitter can be repaired or replaced. The primary transmitter was approximately $32,700 to install and, as of this writing, a cost benefit analysis balancing repair versus replace is being performed but it appears that either way the cost to this 501 (c) (3) educational broadcast charity will be significant. Sadly, this loss was not an insurable event so the noncommercial station must rely on donations to defer the costs. Your prayers and consideration are appreciated.

Sponsors Support Catholic Programming on Radio for Another Year

We wish to thank all the donors, volunteers, staff, committees, councils, board members, supporting parishes, and prayer groups that have helped keep Catholic Radio in South Carolina on the air for another year. We also want to thank those corporate sponsors who have supported us. In this month of thanksgiving, it seems only fitting that we recognize their contributions to the success of this apostolate.

The Christmas Show

Since 2009, Catholic Radio has presented "The Christmas Show," a theatrical radio drama about a man struggling with his past during the holidays. This yuletide parable starring Joe Bennett is a work of fiction however the historical references are fact-based. Joe passed away June 28, 2015. To continue honoring his memory, we plan to air his show at various times during this holiday season. It can be heard on WCKI 1300 AM, WLTQ 730 AM, on the webcast at www.CatholicRadioInSC.com, through the AudioNow line 1-712-832-2674, and it is also available through TuneIn Radio, the FREE app for smart phones and app-based devices. After downloading TuneIn, key in browse search "wcki." Please include our humble efforts as part of your Advent.
